ABOUT IKPORO ONITSHA USA

Ikporo Onitsha Organization, Inc. USA also known as Ikporo Onitsha USA, founded in 2003 is a registered 501(c) (3) national non-profit, non-political, non-governmental, non-affiliate Women for Women organization located in the United States of America.

MOTTO: Engage, Enlighten and Empower

GUIDING PRINCIPLES:

Our guiding principles to Engage, Enlighten and Empower Onitsha women are based on the following:

- The promise that women always move with their children and never abandon their family of procreation, therefore the girl child becomes a must train and a must empower.
- The knowledge that "If you educate a girl, you educate a community"
- The indelible fact that "an empowered woman is a productive woman, a health-seeking woman, and therefore a woman who can be entrusted with the survival and wellbeing of herself and her family".

MISSION STATEMENT:

Ikporo Onitsha USA is committed to engaging, enlightening and empowering Onitsha women to participate in the promotion of the cultural, social, educational, and economic development of Onitsha people in the United States and at home.
